9 AM - 12 PM
Elm Street Gym (Parking Lot)
South Elm Street

If you have recyclables and need to get rid of them, this is your opportunity. Clean these items from your attic, storage shed/garage and bring them to Elm Street Gym (Parking Lot). This special collection is open to the public for one day ONLY. Items collected will be newspapers, magazines, flyers, inserts, and comics; corrugated cardboard, boxes, brown paper bags; all white and colored paper; #1 plastic-clear and green soda bottles and other jars; #2 plastic-milk, detergent, bleach, other bottles and jugs; clear, brown and green glass jars (rinsed, no lids); cartons/boxes, cereal, cake mix, or kleenex boxes; food cans (rinsed) no aerosol or paint cans; aluminum beverage cans and shredded paper. Should you need further information, call Dorothy Carney, Recycling Coordinator, Public Works Department, at (252) 329-4048.

Please participate and tell a friend. Let's all work together to REDUCE, REUSE, and RECYCLE!

Pesticide Collection Day will be held at this same location, date, and time. Bring any pesticides (insecticides, herbicides, fungicides, etc.) in the original container and clearly labeled. There is no cost to you, but we cannot accept products with unknown identities. Collection is limited only to labeled pesticides- no paints, solvents, fertilizers, chemicals, detergents, or any other materials not considered pesticides will be accepted. For additional information, call Sam Uzzell at the Pitt County Cooperative Extension Office at (252) 902-1700, ext. 4.
